III - Admission requirements:

III.1 - In compliance with article 40 of the ECDU, only holders of a PhD degree for over five years prior to the date for submission of applications, as well as the academic title "Agregado" will be admitted to this public notice.

III.2 – Holders of a Ph.D. degree obtained abroad must demonstrate equivalence or recognition or registration of that degree as equal to those awarded by Portuguese universities.

III.3 - The equivalence or recognition or registration of the PhD degree must be obtained prior to the date for submission of applications to this public notice.

III.4 – Failure to comply with the deadline, as well as lack of submission of documents, both referred to in n.º VII and VIII of this Public Notice, will result in the exclusion of the candidate.

III.5 – The candidates, ordered in the final ranking list, are excluded if they do not submit supporting documents, proving to meet legal conditions to establish a legal relationship with the Faculty of Medicine. The candidates are also excluded if the documents presented are inadequate, false or invalid.

III.6 – The candidate ranked immediately below, on final ranking list, will be called if there is a candidate excluded by the previous number. This candidate has to submit supporting documents, proving to meet legal conditions to establish a legal relationship with the Faculty of Medicine

III.7 - Candidates who have been excluded based on the previous numbers are reported for the hearing of interested parties. The deadline for interested parties to deliver comments is ten working days.

IV - Admission requirements in absolute merit

IV.1 - Before ranking the admitted candidates in relative merit, the jury will approve them in absolute merit by individual and justified vote where abstentions shall not be accepted.

IV.2 – It is considered approved in absolute merit the candidate who manages to obtain vote of more than half of the jury members present at the meeting.

IV.3 – Candidates will be approved in absolute merit if the jury considers that their curriculum vitae have scientific merit, research capacity and quality of teaching activities compatible with the subject area for which the tender was opened and appropriate to the respective teaching category.

IV.4 – The voting for the approval on absolute merit depends on the fulfilment of the following three criteria:

- 1) Publication of at least 25 scientific articles in journal indexed in Web of Science, with impact factor, being (a or b):
  - a) First or last author on the majority of the articles, having the majority of them impact factor in the first or second quartiles of the impact factors of journals in a specific area, with reference to the classification of SCIMAGO (Scimago Journal and Country Rank); or
  - b) The number of citations of the articles, as first or last author, greater than 500, with reference to the number of citations in Web of Science and h-index greater than 10.
- 2) Coordination of at least 2 scientific projects as Main Researcher;
- 3) Demonstration of leadership skills through the exercise of positions of management/direction in the academic/scientific areas and also clinical areas, when applicable.

IV.5 - Candidates who have not been approved in absolute merit are reported for the hearing of interested parties. The deadline for interested parties to deliver comments is ten working days.

V - Evaluation parameters, their weight and valuation (relative merit)

V.1 – The selection of the candidates will be based on the following elements:

- a) Curriculum Vitae (represents 80% of final mark);
- b) Scientific-teaching plan, (represents 20% of final mark).

V.2 – According to the content of paragraph 6 of article 50 of the ECDU the curricular evaluation focuses on the following criteria:

- a) Scientific Performance;
- b) Teaching Competence;
- c) Other activities relevant to the mission of the higher education institution, including professional activity.

V.3 – The curricular evaluation in each criteria indicated in V.2 must take into consideration the scientific area of the application.

V.4 - The parameters to be considered for the evaluation set out in paragraph V.2 and their specific weight in the final classification are the following (curricular evaluation):

Scientific Performance (40%)

- a) Publications on scientific journals and their impact factor assessed by international reference systems (60%). In this parameter should be considered the relevance of the scientific publications which according to the candidate's selection will be more representative of his/her curriculum vitae, particularly as regards the contribution to the development of the scientific area of the application;
- b) Leadership and participation in research projects, as well as establishment of scientific teams (15%);
- c) Scientific conferences, communications and organization of scientific meetings (5%);
- d) Supervision of academic dissertations, as well as participation in academic examination panels, scientific evaluation in scientific journals, application research projects and research grants obtained (15%);
- e) Awards, grants and other distinctions (5%).

Teaching Competence (30%)

- a) Quality and diversity of teaching activities, and publications, both on undergraduate and postgraduate studies, as well as participation in courses/tutorials on education (50%);
- b) Ability to organize educational projects, including new courses or training programs and innovative teaching work, as well as positions and responsibilities on the pedagogical area (50%).

Other activities relevant to the mission of the University of Lisbon, including professional activity (30%)

- a) Positions on academic management, cultural and community activities and participation in relevant scientific and cultural programs (40%);
- b) Professional activities relevant to the pedagogical and scientific practice, including clinical areas and others (60%).

V.5 Once the candidates approved in absolute merit are identified (based on the point IV), these will be ranked by relative merit, based on the following final valuation system.

V.6 - Each jury member will assess the merits of the candidates for each criteria and perform the evaluation and final ranking of the candidates as described below:

- a) Definition of the ranking of candidates in each criteria, taking into account their specific parameters of evaluation;
- b) Definition of the final ranking of candidates through the combination of intermediate classifications and the weigh given to each criteria with the weighting given to the Scientific-teaching plan that the candidate proposes to develop in the subject area of the application;
- c) According to the individual assessment of each candidate, each jury member makes his individual ordering list. The ranking of candidates is taken according to their individual order.

V.7 – For the ranking of the candidates approved in absolute merit will be followed the procedure laid down in article 20º of the Regulation.

V.8 - The candidates ordered in the ranking list, but not selected for the opening position, are called for the hearing of interested parties. The deadline for interested parties to deliver comments is ten working days.

VI - Public Hearings

The jury will decide whether public hearings of the candidates approved in absolute merit will be needed. If they are considered necessary, they will take place between the 15th day and the 30th day following the end of the admission process on absolute merit.
